

STATE WATER RESOURCES CONTROL BOARD
RESOLUTION NO. 77-59

REGARDING AN APPEAL FOR A BOARD HEARING
BY
MR. HERIBERTO MORA OF A STAFF DETERMINATION
IN THE WASTEWATER TREATMENT PLANT OPERATOR
CERTIFICATION PROGRAM

WHEREAS:

1. An application for the Grade III wastewater treatment plant operator certification examination dated June 22, 1976 was submitted with the appropriate fee by Heriberto Mora.
2. A staff determination was made indicating the failure to meet the minimum experience requirements for wastewater treatment plant operator certification in a letter to Mr. Mora dated July 9, 1976.
3. A letter dated July 14, 1976 was received from Mr. Joaquin Sosa, Attorney at Law, on behalf of Mr. Mora requesting a hearing before the Board.
4. This matter was taken to the Board at which time Board action was delayed pending Mr. Sosa's request to submit additional information.
5. Additional information submitted did not substantiate any change in the staff's recommendation.
6. All available information was transmitted with an internal memorandum from the Division of Planning and Research to the Executive Officer on April 1, 1977.
7. A letter to Mr. Mora dated April 6, 1977 from the Executive Officer with a determination, on the basis of the record before the Board, that the request for a hearing be denied. A 20-day time limit was established for submission of additional information.
8. No additional information was forwarded.

THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED:

On the basis of the record before the Board, the staff recommendation is affirmed and Mr. Heriberto Mora's request for hearing is denied.

Resolution No. 77-59
