

Regulatory Measure Relationships

Below is the list of regulatory measure relationships. If the screen currently displays “Passive” the choices in the role/relationship drop down menu will be limited to those in the passive column. If the screen displays “Active”, the choice in the role/relationship drop down menu will be limited to those in the active column. To see the other choices, change the voice.

Passive	Active	Definition
Amended By	Amends	Do not use. This relationship was used between two regulatory measures that are for the same discharge. Both regulatory measures should be active, though the more recent regulatory measure revises portions of the existing regulatory measure. This relationship is no longer used. Instead amendments are displayed in a table on the General Info tab of the regulatory measure that was amended.
Archiving (Passive)	Archives	Do no use. This relationship was used between one regulatory measure and another regulatory measure representing the same NPDES permit when requirements within the original record needed modifications. This relationship is no longer used.
Enforced By	Enforces	The relationship between two regulatory measures, where the first order is violated and therefore subject to the actions of the second order.
Regulates	Enrolled Under	The relationship made from an enrollee regulatory measure (type) to a general regulatory measure (type).
Implemented By	Implements	This relationship is to be used between a base order and another regulatory measure such as a co-permittee regulatory measure or individual monitoring and reporting program.

Replaced By	Replaces	Applicable when a new type of regulatory measure takes the place of an existing regulatory measure (e.g. an NPDES permit is replaced by WDRs or on historic records, an ACL Complaint is replaced by an ACL Order). The regulatory measure that gets replaced should have the status "superseded."
Revised By/Renewed By	Revises/ Renews	The relationship between two regulatory measures that are for the same discharge and the existing order is being rescinded with the new order.
