

In response to Executive Order D-5-99, SWRCB staff has created a map displaying areas where published hydrogeologic information indicates conditions that may be more vulnerable to groundwater contamination.

Data Source: State Water Resources Control Board November 2000