

commentletters

---

From: GEORGE LAINE <george3rd1947@sbcglobal.net>
Sent: Friday, October 28, 2016 10:53 AM
To: commentletters
Subject: Comment Letter-2016 Bay-Delta Plan Amendment & SED

Follow Up Flag: Follow up
Flag Status: Flagged

To whom it may concern

Sending the majority of the Sacramento River water to the ocean will deprive farmers of the water they need to grow crops. Farming is a multi-billion dollar industry in California. Curtailing water deliveries to farmers will harm them financially, but more importantly it will significantly negatively impact tax revenue to the State of California. This will impact the entire state. This is a bad idea.

George Laine