

Public Comment
2016 Bay-Delta Plan Amendment & SED
Deadline: 3/17/17 12:00 noon

From: whipplelyn@aol.com
To: commentletters
Subject: Comment Letter-(topic):
Date: Wednesday, March 15, 2017 2:02:19 PM

It appears the State Water Board is looking at taking more water to save fish as the only solution to answering problems the fishing industry faces. Salmon are raised in fish hatcheries. They need a modest water flow to survive beyond the hatchery environment. Agriculture needs the water to remain in the central valley - not go out to the pacific ocean. Focus on preserving water through more water through reservoirs - not diverting water to the ocean - So Sacramento River can go south to Los Angeles.

Lyndalee Whipple