As a life-long Californian I have seen many changes in our landscape and water flow in my over 80 years. Most of the changes were man-made, including building an international airport in the middle of one of North America's major migratory bird flyways. Some Sacramento supervisor made a killing, but they are all dead now.

I have read Assmblyman Frank Bigelow's letter to you opposing your 2016 Bay-Delta Plan Amnedment and I agree with him, especially where he says, "...simply reallocating hundreds of thousands of acre-feet of water for unestablished environmental goals to the detriment of all other water users is unacceptable." The emphasis is mine.

Please consider a much more comprehensive approach which includes input from many, including the public.
