Guy,

Attached are the permits to date for Morning Star on their latest project. They will be pulling another soon for the new Railroad Loading Dock Retaining wall.

Hope these help,

Debbie

Monica,

Thanks for returning my call. It is my understanding that there is no CEQA documentation associated with warehouse nor the expansion of the cooling pond and installation of the additional evaporator at the Morning Star Facility. Please let me know what permits were obtained, and if copies of those permits can be obtained.

Thanks

Guy

OWNER BUILDER DECLARATION

I hereby affirm under penalty of perjury that I am exempt from the Contractors License Law for the following reason (Sec. 7031.5, Business & Professions Code): Any City or County which requires a permit to construct, alter, improve, demolish, or repair any structure, prior to its issuance, also requires the applicant for such permit to file a signed statement that he/she is licensed pursuant to the provisions of the Contractors License Law (Chapter 9 (commencing with Section 7000) of Division 3 of the Business & Professions Code) or that he/she is exempt therefrom and the basis for the alleged exemption. Any violation of Section 7031.5 by any applicant for a permit subjects the applicant to a civil penalty of not more than five hundred dollars ($500.00).

I, as owner of the property, or my employees with wages as their sole compensation, will do the work, and the structure is not intended or offered for sale (Sec. 7044, Business and Professions Code: The Contractor License Law does not apply to an owner of property who builds or improves thereon, and who does such work himself/herself or through his/her own employees, provided that such improvements are not intended or offered for sale. If, however, the building or improvement is sold within one year of completion, the owner-builder will have the burden of proving that he/she did not build or improve for the purpose of sale.)

I, as owner of the property, am exclusively contracting with licensed contractors to construct the project (Sec. 7044, Business & Professions Code: The Contractors License Law does not apply to an owner of property who builds or improves thereon, and who contracts for such projects with a contractor(s) licensed pursuant to the Contractors License Law).

I am exempt under Section _____, B. & P.C. for this reason: _____
