STAFF RECOMMENDATION

Adoption of Tentative Order No. R9-2020-0190 (Tentative Order, Supporting Document No. 1) amending Order No. R9-2019-0166 is recommended.

KEY ISSUES

1. The Tentative Order makes minor modifications to Order No. R9-2019-0166 to correct non-substantive typographical errors.
2. The corrections to Order No. R9-2019-0166 are being processed with the consent of the City of Oceanside (City) as minor permit modifications pursuant to 40 CFR section 122.63.

PRACTICAL VISION

Adoption of the Tentative Order is consistent with the values of transparency and communication outlined in the Proactive Public Outreach and Communication chapter of the Practical Vision<sup>1</sup> as it proposes changes to an existing permit through a transparent public meeting process.

DISCUSSION

The Tentative Order proposes to amend Order No. R9-2019-0166 to correct non-substantive typographical errors including correcting the Ocean Plan table references, changing some text to subscript or superscript, and correcting the page number for the table of contents. The sections in Order No. R9-2019-0166 that will be corrected are identified in page 2 of the Tentative Order and shown in redline/strikeout format in the Attachment to the Tentative Order (see Supporting Document No. 1).

Order No. R9-2019-0166 regulates the City's discharge of secondary-treated wastewater and brine through the Oceanside Ocean Outfall to the Pacific Ocean. A map showing the location of the City's facilities is included as Supporting Document No. 2.

The San Diego Water Board provided an opportunity for the City to review the proposed modifications to Order No. R9-2019-0166 prior to placing the Tentative Order on the August 12, 2020 Board meeting agenda. The City consented to the proposed changes by email dated May 19, 2020 (see Supporting Document No. 3).
