

Process for Stakeholder Comments and Recommendations

Administrative Draft Tentative Order No. R9-2012-0011

FOCUSED MEETINGS

Meeting Topic	Scheduled Date
Water Quality Improvement Plans	May 16, 2012
Monitoring and Assessment Requirements	May 23, 2012
Jurisdictional Runoff Management Programs	June 6, 2012
Reporting	June 13, 2012

Select stakeholder representatives will be invited to attend and participate in the focused meetings.

Representatives from the following stakeholder groups will be invited:

Stakeholder Group	Number of Representatives
San Diego County Copermittees	2
Orange County Copermittees	2
Riverside County Copermittees	2
Environmental Community	2
Development Community	2
USEPA	1

Please see other side of this page for stakeholder representative selection process.

WRITTEN COMMENTS

Due: June 15, 2012

Submit written comments to lwalsh@waterboards.ca.gov and wchiu@waterboards.ca.gov.

PLEASE

Be specific

Focus on desired outcomes to be achieved

Provide constructive criticism

Recommend alternatives and solutions

The San Diego Water Board will not provide written responses to written comments submitted on the administrative draft. Written comments will be considered during the revision and preparation of Tentative Order No. R9-2012-0011 for the formal public review and comment period.

Process for Stakeholder Comments and Recommendations

Administrative Draft Tentative Order No. R9-2012-0011

Focused Meeting Stakeholder Representative Selection Process

San Diego County, Orange County, and Riverside County Copermittees

1. Each county may select up to 2 stakeholder representatives to attend the focused meetings. The stakeholder representatives from each county do not necessarily have to be the same for every focused meeting.
2. The Principle Copermittee from each county is responsible for submitting the names of the selected stakeholder representatives to the Regional Permit Team by email (lwalsh@waterboards.ca.gov and wchiu@waterboards.ca.gov) by May 9, 2012. The following information must be provided:
 - a. Names of selected stakeholder representatives and the meetings they will attend; and
 - b. Contact information (email and telephone number) of the selected stakeholder representatives.

Environmental Community and Development Community

1. Members of these stakeholder groups may nominate representatives (including self-nominations) for consideration by the Regional Permit Team.
2. Nominations are to be submitted to the Regional Permit Team by email (lwalsh@waterboards.ca.gov and wchiu@waterboards.ca.gov) by May 4, 2012. Nominations must include the following information:
 - a. Name of the nominee;
 - b. Qualifications of the nominee (i.e. experience with MS4 permits and meeting topics);
 - c. Meetings the nominee is interested in and able to attend; and
 - d. Contact information (email and telephone number) of the nominee.
3. The Regional Permit Team will notify the nominees if they have been invited to participate as stakeholder representatives by May 9, 2012.