ITEM ADOPTED

Item 7 – Moonlite Associates, LLC, and United Artists Theatre Circuit, Inc., for the property located at 2640 El Camino Real, Santa Clara, Santa Clara County – Adoption of Site Cleanup Requirements

Mr. Wolfe noted that staff had separated functions on this item and that he would be leading the Advisory Team for this item.

As Cleanup Team lead, Assistant Executive Officer Dyan Whyte introduced the Cleanup Team.

Cleanup Team Nathan King made a presentation to the Board. He discussed the history of dry cleaner spills in the Bay Area and the threat that PCE spilled at dry cleaner sites caused to groundwater and drinking water supplies. Mr. King further discussed the site history of Moonlite Dry Cleaners, the site's water quality concerns, the tentative order, comments received on the tentative order, and why the Cleanup Team recommended that both Moonlite Associates and United Artists be named as dischargers. Mr. King also answered a number of technical questions posed by Board members.

United Artists Theatre Circuit, Inc. (UATC), legal counsel Scott Reisch and Eler & Kalinowski, Inc., Vice President Carey Peabody addressed the Board. Mr. Reisch presented a legal argument as to why his client should not be named as a discharger. Ms. Peabody presented technical arguments that the PCE release at the site occurred post 1978. Board members asked a number of clarifying questions.

Moonlite Associates, LLC, Attorney Lori J. Gualco and West Environmental Principal Engineer Peter Krasnoff addressed the Board. Ms. Gualco presented the history of the site and legal arguments why UATC should be named as a discharger. Mr. Krasnoff presented technical information supporting an argument that that there are multiple lines of evidence that releases occurred at the site during the 1960's and 1970's. Mr. Krasnoff responded to a number of clarifying questions posed by Board Member McGrath.

The Board went into closed session to discuss the case with the Advisory Team at 1:32 pm. The Board re-convened the meeting in open session at 2:24 pm.

Vice-Chair Young called for closing remarks by both parties. Each of the parties presented closing and summary remarks.

Mr. Wolfe recommended that the Board adopt the Revised Tentative Order with the revised due dates as noted in the supplemental. The Board discussed the various arguments presented and the evidence before them.

Board Member McGrath moved for adoption of Item 7 as supplemented;
Vice-Chair Young seconded the motion.
