

Department of Water Resources (DWR) Overview of Proposition 1E Stormwater-Flood Management

Presented at the Proposition 84
Storm Water Grant Program Scoping Meeting

Presented by:
Department of Water Resources or
State Water Resources Control Board Staff

Sacramento, CA	February 25, 2008	10:00 AM – 1:00 PM
San Luis Obispo, CA	March 3, 2008	1:00 PM – 4:00 PM
Los Angeles, CA	March 10, 2008	1:00 PM – 4:00 PM

DWR Overview of Prop 1E Stormwater-Flood Management

- PRC § 5096.827
- $300 million
- Stormwater Flood Management Projects
 - Designed to manage stormwater runoff to reduce flood damage
 - Where feasible, provide other benefits
 - Groundwater Recharge, Water Quality, Ecosystem restoration

DWR Overview of Prop 1E Stormwater-Flood Management

- Non-state cost share of not less than 50%
 - Cannot waive or reduce
- Not part of the State Plan of Flood Control
 - PRC § 5096.805(j)
 - Need to provide technical assistance
 - Tiered Evaluation
 - “Obviously” not part
 - Unclear – DWR consultation
 - Detailed technical analysis

DWR Overview of Prop 1E Stormwater-Flood Management

- Consistent with applicable IRWM plan
 - Must be included in an IRWM plan
- Consistent with applicable regional water quality control plans (Basin Plan)
 - Coordinate with RWQCB
- DWR will also coordinate with SWRCB
 - Prop 84 Stormwater Grant funding
 - Input on water quality issues

DWR

Stormwater-Flood Management

- Eligible grant recipient – Be inclusive
- Max grant amount
 - Not specified in PRC
 - Considering $30 million cap
- Must demonstrate reduction in flood damage
 - “How to” guidance

Contact Information

➤ Mr. Joe Yun

- E-Mail: jyun@water.ca.gov
- Phone: (916) 651-9222