in the County of Modoc, State of California:

Heir at Law, is now the owner of the following described land, situate

Township (41) North, Range (16) East, M.D.B.& M.
Section 23 -- North one-half of Southwest quarter, Southeast quarter of the Southwest quarter (less ten acres off the West side), Northwest quarter of the Southeast quarter, and the South one-half of the Southeast quarter.

24 -- Southwest quarter of the Southwest quarter,

And Containing in all 270 acres, more or less.

That said Defendant George Laxague is the owner and now in possession of the following described land, situate in the County of Modoc, State of California:

Township (41) North, Range (16) East, M.D.B.& M.
Section 23 — The West ten (10) acres of the Southeast quarter of the Southwest quarter.

That all of the lands above described are agricultural and farming lands, and adapted to agriculture and farming, and are now being used and farmed by the said Plaintiffs and Defendants for agricultural purposes to-wit: For raising hay, alfalfa, grain, fruits, vegetables and pasture, and that said lands have been so owned and occupied, possessed and farmed by the said Plaintiffs and Defendants and their predecessors, for a period of more than eighty (80) years last passed, continuously preceding the commencement of this action, and that during all of said period, these Plaintiffs and Defendants, and their predecessors have kept, fed and pastured large numbers of horses and cattle and other stock thereon, and have harvested said crops growing on said lands, each and every year.

That the climate in which all of said land is situated is an arid climate, and that the character of said land and the soil thereon, and the climate in which said lands are situated are such that irrigation is necessary upon the said lands in order to produce valuable crops thereon, and that irrigation is necessary and indispensable to the fertility and value of said lands and the whole thereof, for any agricultural purposes, and that without such irrigation, the said lands and the whole thereof, would become barren, sterile and valueless, and useless and worthless for agricultural purposes.

That a stream of water called Cottonwood Creek rises in the Warner Range of mountains, situated in Modoc County, to the West of the lands of Plaintiffs and Defendants herein described, and flows in an Easterly distreset in a well-defined channels to, upon, over and across and near to said lands of Plaintiffs and Defendants, and has so flowed since time immemorial; that at the start of the irrigation season, about the first of April each year, the flow of the waters of said Cottonwood Creek will flow approximately about five thousand (5,000) inches measured under a four inch pressure, but, as the season advances, the flow in said Cottonwood Creek diminishes so that by the first of July in each year, the flow of the waters in said Cottonwood Creek has diminished to about twelve hundred (1,200) inches, measured under a four inch pressure.

That Plaintiffs and Defendants Thelma Archer as Administratrix of the Estate of Elmer Page, deceased, and George Laxague and all of their predecessors in interest, have for more than eighty (80) years appropriated and diverted and used the waters of Cottonwood Creek onto said lands belonging to said Plaintiffs and Defendants Thelma Archer as Administratrix of the Estate of Elmer Page, deceased, and George Laxague, sufficient in amount and quantity to irrigate their aforesaid llands, for the purposes aforesaid, and for stock and domestic purposes.

That the said waters so appropriated and used by Plaintiffs and Defendants Thelma Archer, as Administratrix of the Estate of Elmer Page, deceased, and George Laxague, aforesaid, and the whole thereof, are necessary and indispensable to the growing of crops of hay, grain, pasture, alfalfa, fruits and vegetables upon the said lands of Plaintiffs and Defendants Thelma Archer as Administratrix of the Estate of Elmer Page, deceased, and George Laxague, and that with the said waters of said Cottonwood Creek so appropriated and used by the said Plaintiffs and Defendants and their predecessors in interest, Plaintiffs and Defendants can and do produce valuable crops of hay, grain alfalfa, pasturage, vegetables and fruits, but without the waters of said Cottonwood Creek, so appropriated and used by said Plaintiffs and Defendants and their predecessors in interest, their said crops planted on said lands would cease to grow, would not mature and would dry up, and the said lands and the whole thereof would become unproductive, barren, sterile and of small value.

That by Agreement and Stipulation of all Plaintiffs and Defendants Thelma Archer, as Administratrix of the Estate of Elmer Page, deceased, and George Laxague, it is ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED that, irrespective of whether the claimed water rights are appropriated as claimed by Defendants Thelma Archer, as Administratrix of the Estate of Elmer Page, and George Laxague, or appropriated riparian, by adverse prescription or by contract, as claimed by Plaintiffs, said waters of Cottonwood Creek shall be and are Determined and Adjudged to be, on an equal priority basis, irrespective of the nature of said claimed rights, and it is

FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED that no rights herein of any of the respective parties are superior to the rights of the other parties, but that all of said water rights stand upon an equal parity and priority basis in the following percentages of their rights to the flow of waters in said Cottonwood Creek, measured under a four inch pressure, as follows:

Thelma Archer, Successor in Interest	• to Elmer Page, deceased,	6,00 %

use of the other users herein of Cottonwood Creek.

Б

that at such times in each calendar year that the flow in Cottonwood Creek is so reduced that the allocated percentages to Plaintiff Donald L. Rosendahl, Plaintiffs Donald D. Coops and Rose Marie Coops, and William Cockrell and Betty Cockrell, as successors in interest to Four Star Cattle Company, are not, when diverted through what is commonly known as the "Minto Ditch" reach the West side of Modoc County Road 1-A, then and only in such event, all of their flow in Cottonwood Creek shall thereupon be diverted into what is commonly known as the "Sand Hill Ditch" as follows: four-fifths (4/5ths) of all said flow to Plaintiffs Edgar Harris and Ruby B. Harris and Plaintiffs Dale Goodwin and Anita Goodwin, and one-fifth (1/5th) to Plaintiffs William Cockrell and Betty Cockrell, as owners of a portion of the Frank McClintock lands.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED that each of the parties hereto shall, and they are hereby ordered, to construct and maintain suitable diversion boxes and measuring devices to adequately and properly facilitate the distribution and the diversion of water as provided by this Decree, that is to say, that each party here to shall be responsible for suitable and adequate boxes and measuring devices where the respective owner's water is diverted from the main diversion box at the mouth of Cottonwood Creek Canyon, and further responsible for his proportionate share of diversion boxes and measuring devices at subsequent points on his ditch where additional diversions are necessary or desirable.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED that Plaintiffs herein are not entitled to, and have no interest or claim or other right, in and to the natural flow of the waters of what is commonly known as Little Cottonwood Creek, also known as Mosquito Creek, but that all of said waters of Little Cottonwood Creek, aka Mosquito Creek, are wholly owned by Defendant Thelma Archer, Administratrix of the estate of Elmer Page, deceased, and Sole Heir at Law.
