Governor Brown and Obama Administration Outline Path Forward on California Water

July 25, 2012 - Today, Governor Brown was joined by Secretary of the Interior Ken Salazar and Assistant Administrator of the National Oceanic and Atmospheric Administration (NOAA) Eric Schwaab to outline a proposed path forward for the Bay Delta Conservation Plan and California's water future. Review materials related to the announcement and audio/visual clips here.

The Bay Delta Conservation Plan (BDCP) is designed to achieve the co-equal goals of providing for the conservation and management of aquatic and terrestrial species, including the restoration and enhancement of ecological functions in the Sacramento-San Joaquin River Delta, and improving current water supplies and the reliability of water supply delivery conveyed through the State Water Project (SWP) and the Central Valley Project (CVP).
