

The Monterey Peninsula residents are the most efficient water users in the state. Don't impose impossible or draconian rationing amounts on the area.

Instead, there should be a concerted, organized movement to get alternative water supplies, such as sea water purification. Help is needed to overcome the legal hurdles to deal with new water supplies. That should be the focus of your efforts.

Daniel Hightower, MD
27189 Prado del Sol
Carmel, CA 93923

