

I live in Carmel Valley. We are already one of the most frugal water users in the whole state. The goal of reducing pumping water from Carmel Valley river needs to be accomplished, but not without alternatives that do not destroy our quality of life in Carmel Valley. I am opposed to imposing such drastic restrictions on CalAm as contemplated.

Dr. Richard Bucky Jackson

